Have you tie dyed every T-shirt in you own by now? If you're looking for some new ideas, we've got you covered. Here are 10 things to tie dye that aren't T-shirts, but you can still find at home. That's right, now you can wear tie dye and live in it too. Sounds pretty much like Heaven if you ask us!

Instructions:

Step 1

Enjoy your favorite summer dishes with a side of tie dye! Perfect for picnics in the park, backyard brunches and every meal in between, tie-dye cloth napkins are a fun way to add an extra personal touch when dining with friends and family.

Step 2

Add some extra interest to your view with a set of tie-dye curtains! Customize in colors to match your space for such an easy way to brighten up any room in the house, even when it's dark outside.

Step 3

A lot of us are making the most of time outdoors this season with bike rides, hikes, fresh air and pretty scenery. Take a picnic on your next outdoor excursion – and don't forget to pack your tie-dye blanket! No matter where the day takes you, lounge in style with a soft picnic blanket in your favorite tie-dye colors.

Step 4

If you get to catch some Zs on a tie-dye bed, your furry BFF should get to as well. Tie dye a pet bed to match your own tie-dye bedding, or make one that's wild and crazy to match your pet's personality! Either way, a cushy, colorful tie-dye pet bed will be a total treat for your fur baby.

Step 5

Speaking of lounging, get your beauty sleep in custom tie-dye bedding! Try tie dyeing sheets, a duvet, pillowcases or your whole entire bed set for sweet dreams in bold color. Plus, now you have more reasons to sneak naps in during the day. We won't tell.

Step 6

"I have too many pairs of shoes," said no one ever. That's why adding a pair of tie-dye shoes to your collection is a great idea. And hey, you can actually tie dye a pair you already have (as long as they're made of canvas), so it won't even count as getting a new pair. For this cool watercolor effect, try the ice dye tie-dye technique and let the ice do the work for you!

Step 7

These are the days of top knots, ponytails and braids. Tie up your locks in bright colors with a custom tie-dye scrunchie! Tie dye a whole set for yourself or your crew for such an easy way to add the perfect pop of color to any casual look.

Step 8

Give your cotton face mask some extra flair with tie dye! (Tulip One-Step Dyes are nontoxic, so you don't have to stress about masks dyed with any of our tie dyes.) Tie dye a face mask for every day of the week to keep yourself and others safe in vibrant color and style.

Step 9

Beat the summer heat whether you're poolside or beachside with a tie-dye towel that's cooler than the waves you're making. Dive right in to a new tie-dye adventure and tie dye a towel for the ultimate summer splash.

Step 10

Fall will be here before we know it, so it's never a bad idea to have a good hoodie ready to keep you warm when the weather turns. Tie dye a hoodie in bright colors that remind you of sunny summer days for the coziest way to chill out this fall and winter. It's always a fun idea to tie dye some loungewear for cooler temps.

Step 11

BONUS! We know we said 10 things to tie dye that aren't T-shirts, but we're throwing in an extra project for you. Can you tell we're all about that lounging life this summer? Pick up a good book and head outside to relax in your very own tie-dye hammock! Kick up your feet with colorful tie-dye patterns that might just end up rocking you to sleep mid-chapter.
